

True Originals

Your guide to commissioning a portrait
(they're surprisingly affordable!)

Commissioning a work of art can seem a little daunting, so we've put together three pages, grouped loosely by style, of the best artists doing pet portraiture. Peruse these pages to see what speaks to you and take the leap—we're sure you'll be thrilled with your very own masterpiece.

STYLE REFERENCE: avant garde

1

2

3

1 "Riley" by Shasta Molnar of Picasso Dog; medium: acrylic or oil; price range: $300 USD and up. picassodog.com

2 "Frisbee Dog" by Ron Finley; medium: giclée archival print of photographic and computer-generated 3D image; price range $500 – $1500 USD. thedogsgallery.com

3 "Ducat" by Shoshanna Sutherland; medium: oil on canvas; price range: $400 – $1700 CAD. pawprintportraits.com

4 "Oliver" by Anne Leuck Feldhouse of Anne's Art; medium: acrylic on canvas; price range: $300 USD and up. annesart.com

5 "Greyhound" by Heather Christofero of Left Paw; medium: acrylic on canvas; price range: $250 USD and up. leftpaw.com

6 "Princess Di" by Linda O'Neill of Abby Creek Studios; medium: acrylic on canvas; price range: $275 – $1,300 USD; abbycreekstudios.com

7 "Hold me tight" by Rebecca Collins of Art Paw; medium: giclée print on canvas of computer-generated digital image, price range: $75 – $620 USD. artpaw.com

4

5

6

7